Practices: Employment, Labor & Benefits

Masuda Funai is pleased to announce our 2018 Webinar Series, entitled “The Employment Life of Robert Rightman.” In four, one-hour long webinars, we will follow the employment life of a typical employee from hiring to termination. Through these webinars, listeners will identify the procedures all companies should implement, draft the outlines of human resource programs companies should adopt for their companies and learn how to comply with the laws and regulations causing the greatest risks for employers. Please join us on:

Recruitment, Hiring & New Employee Orientation

- Should the company classify the new worker as an employee or independent contractor?
- What are the essential elements of every job description?
- How should managers conduct interviews to lessen liabilities?
- How do background checks create federal liability?
- How can orientation reduce risks?

Registration for future webinars will be available closer to the webinar date.
