

News & Types: News

Bryan Funai, Kathleen Gaber and Fazila Vaid Authored an Article in the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education

2/22/2019

By: Bryan Y. Funai, Kathleen M. Gaber, Fazila Vaid

Practices: Immigration

The article "Employment-Based Permanent Resident Petitions" featured in the 2019 Immigration Law Edition of the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education provides insights regarding the American immigration policy and how it is political and, therefore, changeable. Readers seriously interested in immigration law are encouraged

- to join the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA), www.aila.org;
- to subscribe to email updates from the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), www.uscis.gov;
- and
- to sign up for daily immigration updates from Immigration Lawyers on the Web (ILW), www.ilw.com.

Subscribers to the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education can access the article through their subscription here. For additional information, please contact Bryan Funai, Kathleen Gaber or Fazila Vaid.