Alan Kaplan, Principal of Masuda, Funai, Eifert & Mitchell, Ltd. was appointed Coordinator, Continuing Legal Education for the Labor & Employment Section Council by the Illinois State Bar Association. Alan is also serving as Chair Ex-Officio of the Association's Small Business and Financial Planning Section Council.

Founded in 1877, the Illinois State Bar Association is the premier legal association in the state. As a voluntary organization of 28,000 members, the Association's primary focus is to assist Illinois lawyers in the practice of law and to promote improvements in the administration of justice. The Association engages in many important activities on behalf of the profession — among them proposing and shaping legislation, educating the public, and supporting the courts and the rule of law.
