Masuda Funai Speaking at JETRO's Commercial Contract Webinar

3/8/2024

On March 14, 2024, Masuda Funai will be speaking at the JETRO Employment Webinar on the topic of "What Local Japanese Executives Should Note in Reviewing U.S. Commercial Contracts." Dayne Kono, Chairman, Tadashi Tahara, Associate, and Takayuki Nakata, Visiting Foreign Attorney, will speak on the importance of understanding crucial provisions such as warranty, indemnification, limitation of liability, and intellectual property in U.S. commercial contracts, which could significantly impact your company's financial risk. Japanese affiliated companies located in the U.S. and their parent companies should consider attending this virtual event. Click here for more information or to register online. This event is in Japanese only.

JETRO is a non-profit organization founded in 2003 that supports the development of sales channels and the establishment of bases for small- and medium-sized Japanese enterprises (SMEs) in overseas markets. JETRO facilitates business negotiations (such as at overseas trade fairs), the utilization of cross-border e-commerce, the employment of overseas business personnel, the development of frontier markets, and the use of intellectual property.
