masuda funai

News & Types: News

Masuda Funai Welcomes Simran (Sim) Neal to the Chicago Office

12/4/2025

Practices: Real Estate

Masuda, Funai, Eifert & Mitchell, Ltd. is pleased to welcome Simran (Sim) Neal as an associate in the firm's Chicago office. She is a real estate attorney focusing on matters involving the purchase, sale, or lease of commercial real estate. In her practice, she reviews and drafts purchase and sale agreements, construction contracts, leases and financing transactions, in addition to assisting with site selection and acquisition, due diligence, title and survey examination, and entitlement and property development issues. She is committed to facilitating the real estate objectives of the firm's clients and her background in both in-house and small firm environments strengthens her personal approach and informs her practical, business-focused guidance.

"We are excited to welcome Sim to our Real Estate practice group," said George Kobayashi, President of Masuda Funai. "Her broad experience across commercial purchase, sale, and leasing transactions, along with her practical insight from both in-house and small firm environments, enhances the business-focused guidance we provide to clients pursuing their real estate objectives."

Click hereto learn more about Sim.