Mitchell Pollard is a real estate attorney focusing on matters involving the purchase, sale, or lease of commercial real estate. In his practice, he reviews and drafts purchase and sale agreements, construction contracts, leases and financing documentation, in addition to assisting with site selection and acquisition, due diligence, title and survey examination, entitlement issues, and property development issues and new construction.

Mitchell is committed to facilitating the real estate objectives of the firm's clients. He began his legal career with a one-year clerkship at the Tennessee Court of Appeals (Civil Division) and, prior to joining Masuda Funai, he was a real estate associate in a suburban Chicago law firm.

During law school, Mitchell pursued a joint Juris Doctor and Master of Business Administration (JD/MBA) degree. He was a member of the University of Memphis Law Review, becoming an Articles Editor, and he served as a Research Assistant to the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs.
