On February 23, 2021, Kathleen Gaber, Principal at Masuda, Funai, Eifert & Mitchell, Ltd., participated in a panel discussion "Business Immigration & Global Mobility in 2021: What's Next?" co-sponsored by Alliot Global Alliance ("AGA"), BritishAmerican Business ("BAB") and Farkouh, Furman & Faccio ("FFF"). The virtual event brought together immigration legal and tax experts for an important discussion on the prospects for business global mobility, and immigration in the United States and the United Kingdom in the upcoming year. Also covered were important legal and HR considerations related to visas, short- and long-term employee migration for international business, and tax strategies and implications for businesses and their employees. 170 members of AGA and BAB on both sides of the Atlantic attended the virtual event.

David Gibbs, Partner at AGA, moderated the discussion and panelists included: Kathleen Gaber, Principal at Masuda Funai, Bernardo Entsch, President at AIMS INTERNATIONAL, Hunter Norton, Partner at FFF, and Graeme Kirk, Partner and Solicitor at Ellisons Solicitors.

Alliot Global Alliance is an alliance of independent, progressive, mid-market accounting, law and specialist firms. AGA's member firms are rich with talented and highly-experienced professionals who know their jurisdictions, practice areas, clients and alliance colleagues. AGA's reach extends deep into Europe, Africa, the Middle East, North America, Latin America and the Asia Pacific. The alliance currently has 192 members in 79 countries.

BritishAmerican Business is the leading transatlantic trade association created as a result of the merger between the British-American Chamber of Commerce in the U.S. and the American Chamber of Commerce in the UK. BAB is a network of over 400 companies that actively promotes trade and investment and supports those who make the transatlantic corridor part of their business growth ambition.

For more than four decades, Farkouh, Furman & Faccio has provided professional accounting and business consulting services to a wide range of clients. FFF's clients prefer to work with them because they make it their priority to develop longstanding relationships that focus on each client's unique needs for success.
